

Apple Café

Santa Clara, United States

Project Description

Lindner contributed to the interior fit-out of the Apple Café with lightweight panels of type Comp+ with micro perforation and wooden appearance. These elements maintain rigidity even in large-scale executions while being comparably lightweight overall. The system was uniquely designed to add sail like panels independently hung meeting seismic requirements.

General

Building Type	Restaurants and Canteens
Company Division	Lindner USA Inc.
Completion	2013 - 2014
Client	Magnum Drywall
Architect	Foster + Partners

Completed Works

- Partitions

Wall and ceiling panels
COMPwood

