Within the supply of required merchandises are relationships with external businesses for the sourcing of products and materials. These as well as the suppliers of services make up the supply chains within Lindner Exterior's Holding Ltd and its subsidiaries above.

Our Supply Chain

The relationship with the majority of our suppliers has been established over many years. Our client relationships are built on a philosophy of total dedication and collaboration. All new suppliers have to undergo a rigorous pre-qualification process to ensure their compliance with Lindner Exterior's Holding Ltd values.

Our policy on Slavery and Human Trafficking - Our anti-slavery statement reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to ensuring that effective systems are in place to prevent slavery and human trafficking taking place anywhere within our supply chains.

Due Diligence Processes for Slavery and Human Trafficking

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk, we have systems in place to:-

- Identify and assess potential risk areas when approving new suppliers
- Regularly review our existing supply chain
- Build long standing relationships with our supply chain, based on collaboration
- Communicate our expectations in respect of ethical behaviour

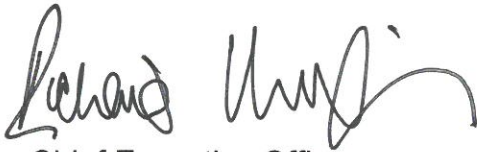

Training

To maintain awareness and ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business our Anti-Slavery policy is available to our employees on our I.Net. We also provide training to relevant members of staff.

The company Directors and Senior Management shall take the responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resources (Training etc) and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not encountered within the organisation or within its supply chains.

This statement has been approved by the Lindner Exterior's Holding Ltd Board and is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our company's slavery and human trafficking statement.
