BMW Vierzylinder

Munich, Germany

Lindner

© Lindner, Arnstorf (D)

Project Description

Lindner received the contract for the dismantling of all ceiling, floor and wall constructions plus the gutting of the complete listed high-rise building into its shell construction. Afterwards the BMW headquarter and large parts of the BMW museum were fitted with heated and chilled ceilings, partitions, floor systems and furthermore Lindner carried out extensive insulation works.

General

Building Type	Office Buildings, Museums and Galleries, Industrial and commercial construction, Cultural buildings
Company Division	Lindner SE | Fit-Out South.Southwest Germany, Lindner SE | Floors, Lindner SE | Ceilings, Lindner SE | Partitions, Lindner Bautechnik GmbH
Completition	2004 - 2007
Client	Bayerische Motoren Werke AG
Architect	Schweger Associated Architects GmbH

Completed Works

- Ceilings

  Heated and Chilled Hook-On Ceilings
  Metal Ceilings

- Floors

  Calcium Sulphate Panels
  FLOOR and more®
  NORTEC

- Partitions

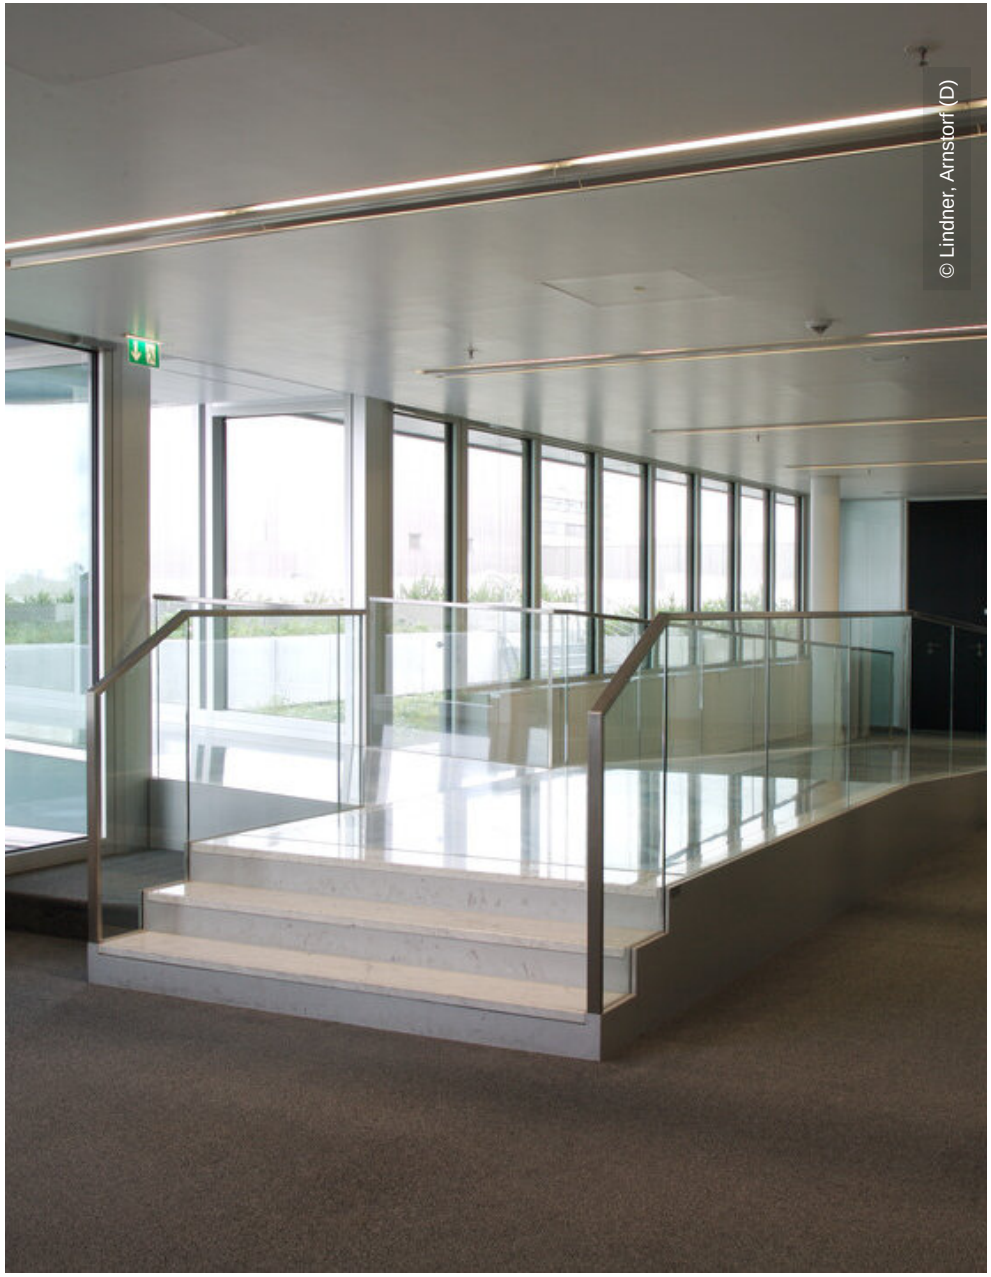
  Partition Systems Glass
  Additional Equipment- Lindner Plus
  Doors for Partition Systems

- Insulation Engineering



Lindner

Lindner