

BMW Forschungs- und Innovationszentrum (FLZ)

Munich, Germany

Project Description

The BMW Group Research and Innovation Center is situated close to BMW's Munich headquarter and is among the world's most modern automobile-industry development centers. Lindner fitted ceiling systems, raised floor systems and partition systems to the "Projekthaus" and was responsible for the interior fit-out of the "Vorstandscasino".

General

| | |
|------------------|--|
| Building Type | Office buildings, Laboratories and Research Facilities |
| Company Division | Lindner SE Fit-Out South.Southwest Germany, Lindner SE Floors, Lindner SE Ceilings, Lindner SE Heated and Chilled Ceilings |
| Completion | 2003 - 2005 |
| Client | Bayerische Motoren Werke AG |
| Architect | Henn Architekten |

- Doors

- Floors

Calcium sulphate panels
FLOOR and more®
Nasshohlboden
CAVOPEX
Calcium Sulphate Panels
NORTEC
Chipboard Panels
LIGNA

- Insulation Engineering

Completed Works

- Dry lining

Plasterboard ceiling systems
Plasterboard partition systems

- Ceilings

Metal Ceilings
Heated and Chilled Plasterboard Ceilings
Project-Related Solutions

