Project Description

The "DeLaMar" Theatre, formerly known as the “Nieuwe de la Mar Theater”, was opened by Queen Beatrix in Amsterdam on 28.11.2010. The new complex consists of the old theater building and two adjoining cinemas . The old theater was closed in 2005 due to serious construction problems. The theater now includes two halls with 601 or respectively 939 seats. Lindner fitted the foyer and the audience hall out with its hollow-floor systems.
