Project Description

"Music is our Passion" – the motto that adorns the walls of the Thomann music store in Burgebrach could not be more fitting: The new administration building III of Musikhaus Thomann GmbH is a place for music and creativity. The four-storey new building impresses with a green flat roof, three office wings, glazed atriums and an interior fit-out that makes both the interior designer's and the musician's heart beat faster. Concert pictures on the walls, a keyboard and a "Walk of Fame" on the floor, cosy meeting corners and planted lounges are just a few of the building highlights.

The Lindner Group played a major role in the interior fit-out: Partition walls made of wood and glass – including Lindner Logic 100 Timber, Lindner Life Pure 620 and Lindner Life Clear – separate the rooms elegantly. A wide variety of prints turn the glass partitions into individual eye-catchers. The Lindner Free Timber wall covering ensures a harmonious appearance of the walls. The doors with wooden or glass door leaves blend in perfectly with the walls and have been fitted with Lindner Plus aluminium frames, wooden stick frames and door handles. There is also a Lindner special solution in the building: around 75 m² of Lindner Life Pure 620 was installed as rounded glazing. With a concert image printed on the glass, the partitions form an exceptional meeting room that provides enough space for creative ideas.
